

1. This is the home page of the application. It allows you to select the store location. There is the help, About and Refresh button.

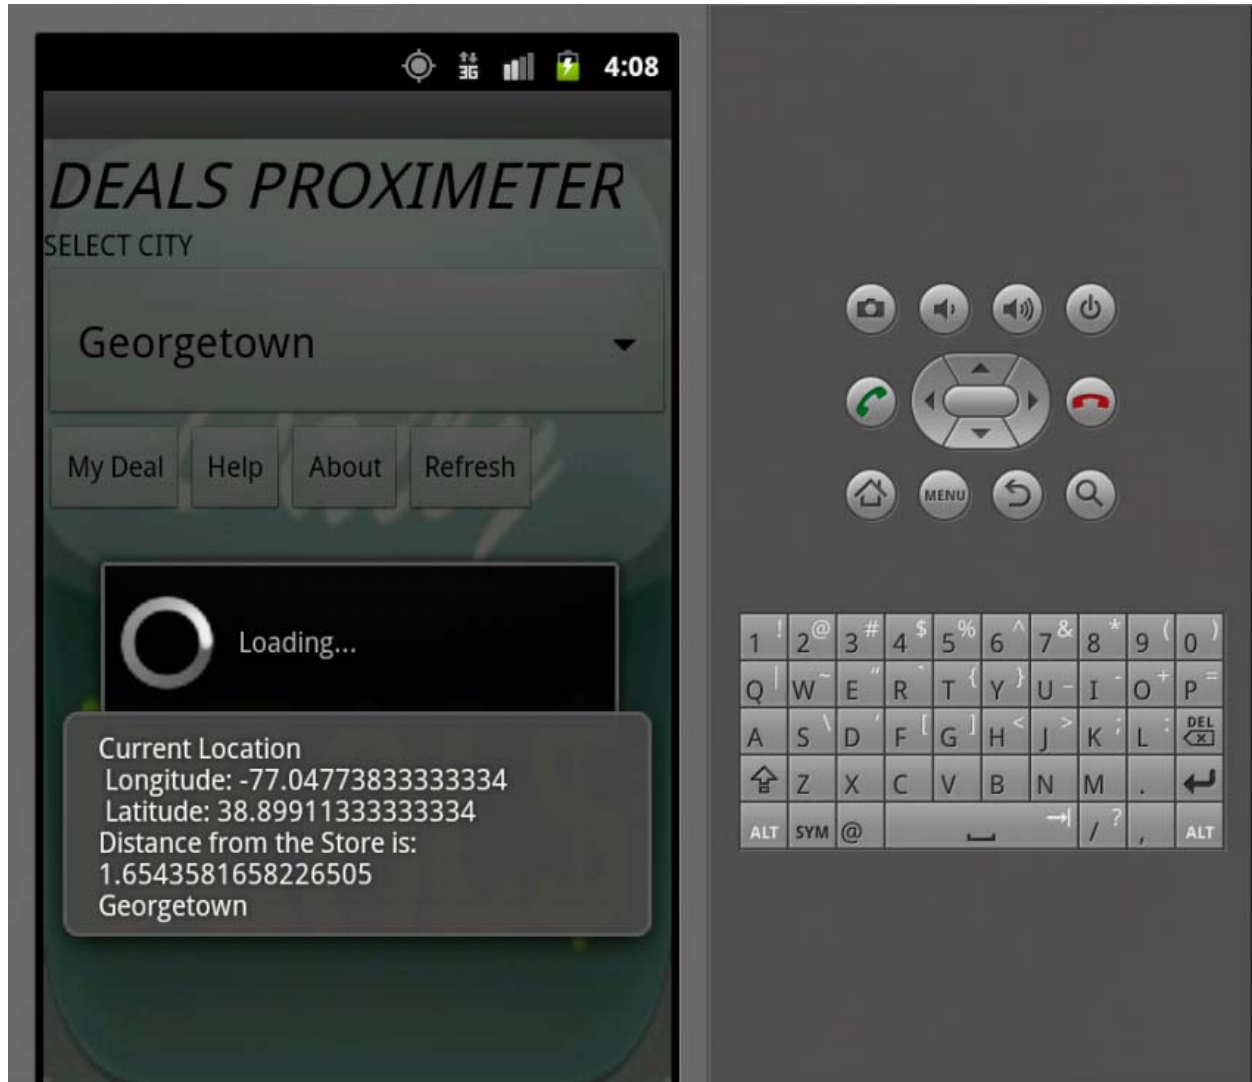

- 2. This page displays the drop down list from where the user has to select the store location.

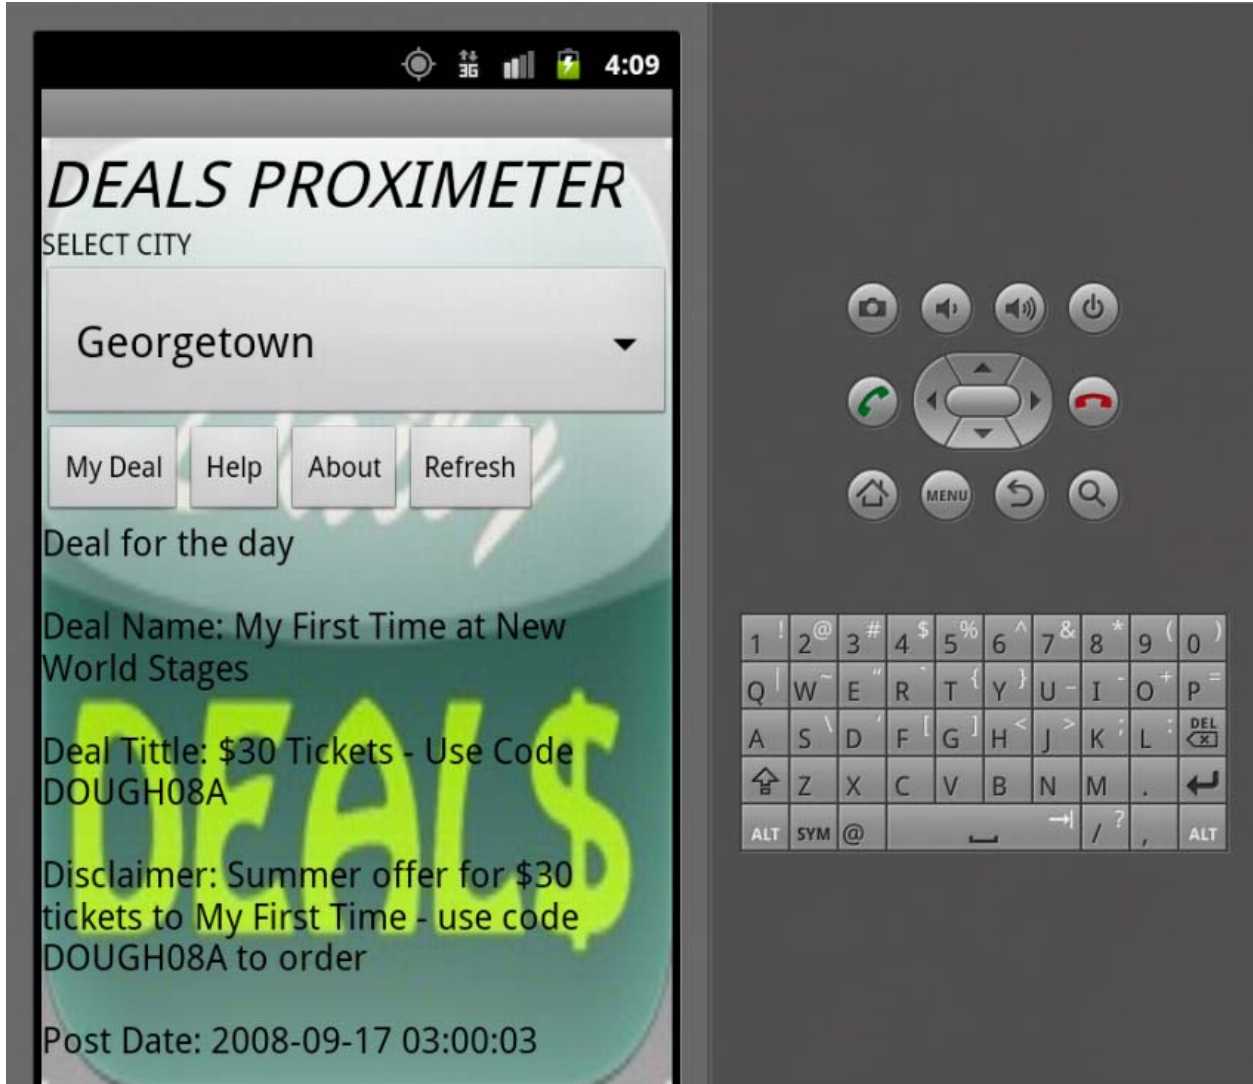

- Here the user has selected Georgetown store and now he has to click on My Deals to get the deal for the day.

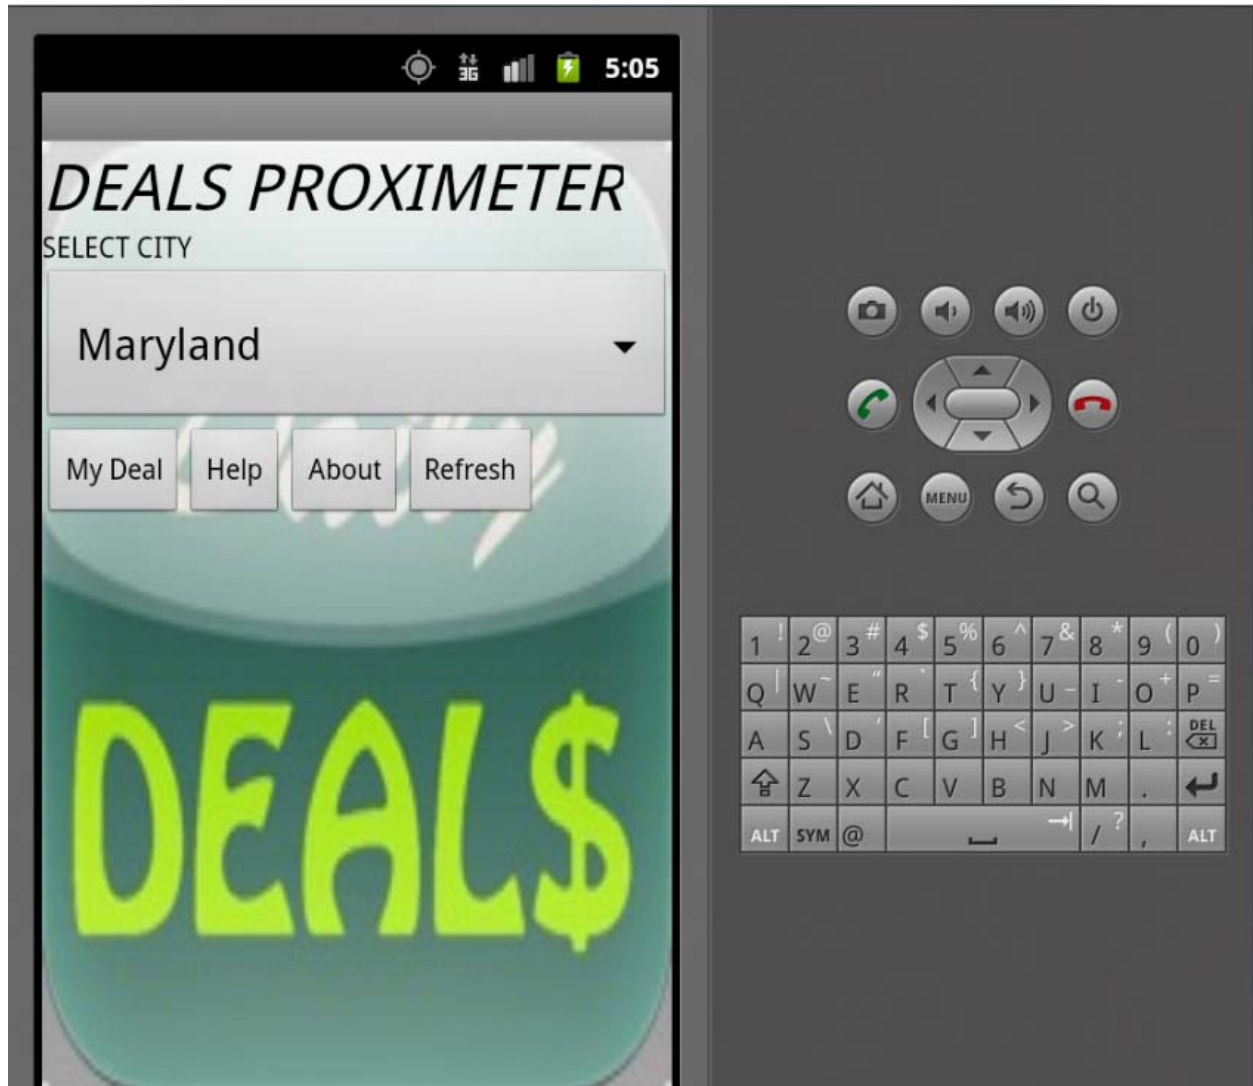

- 4. This screen shows the Longitude and Latitude of the user and the calculates the distance between the user and the store in miles.

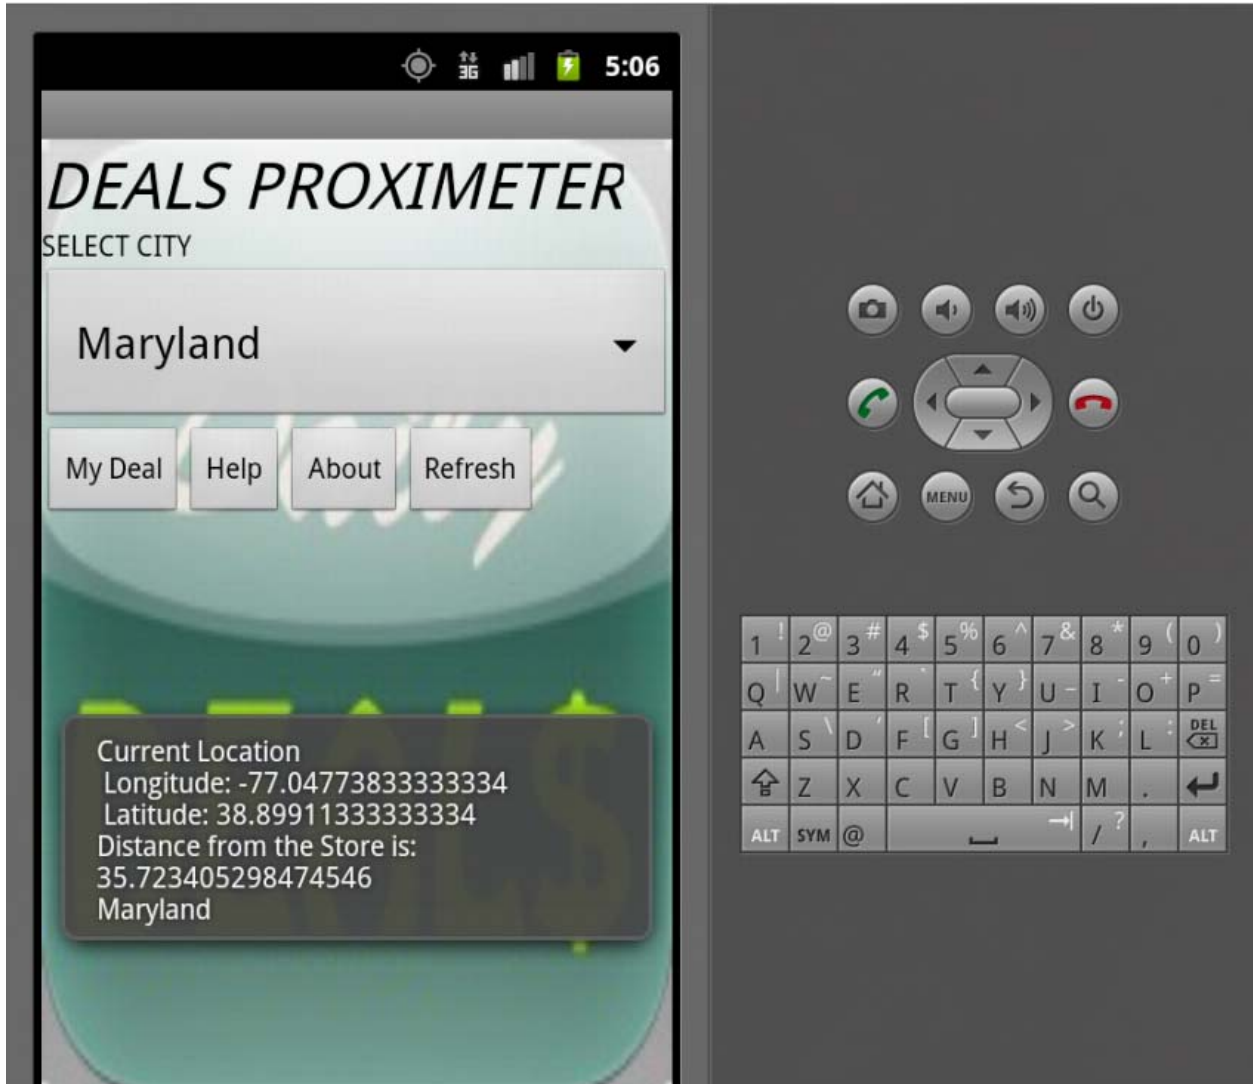

- 5. If the user is in the range of the store then the application will send the deal of the store. I have used the 8coupons API to get the deal from the internet.

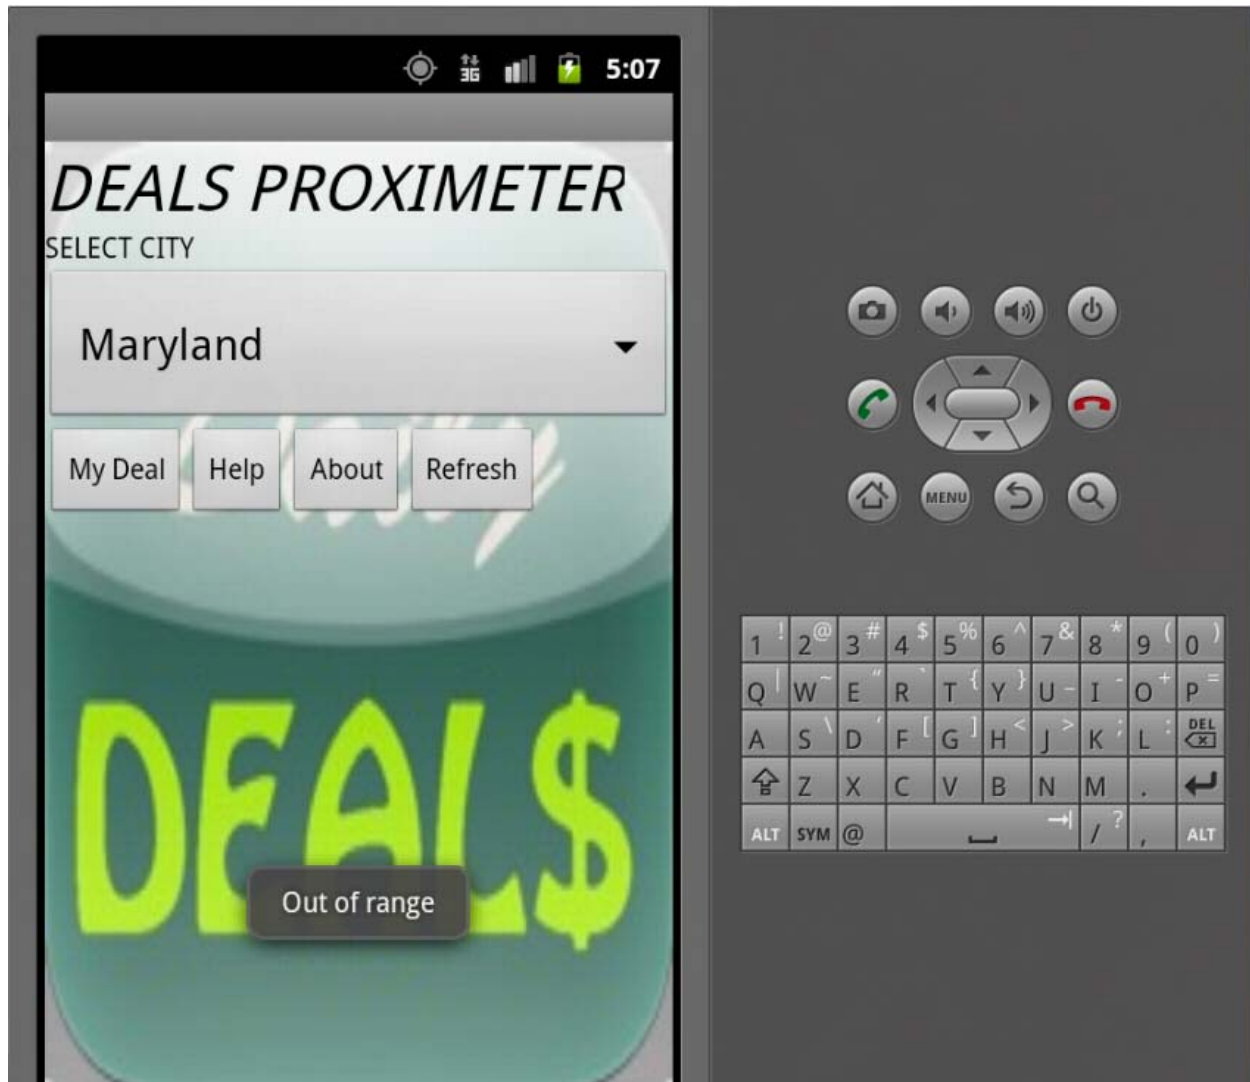

6. Here the user has selected the Maryland store from the drop down box.

- 7. This screen displays the Longitudes and the latitudes of the user and the distance of the user from the store.

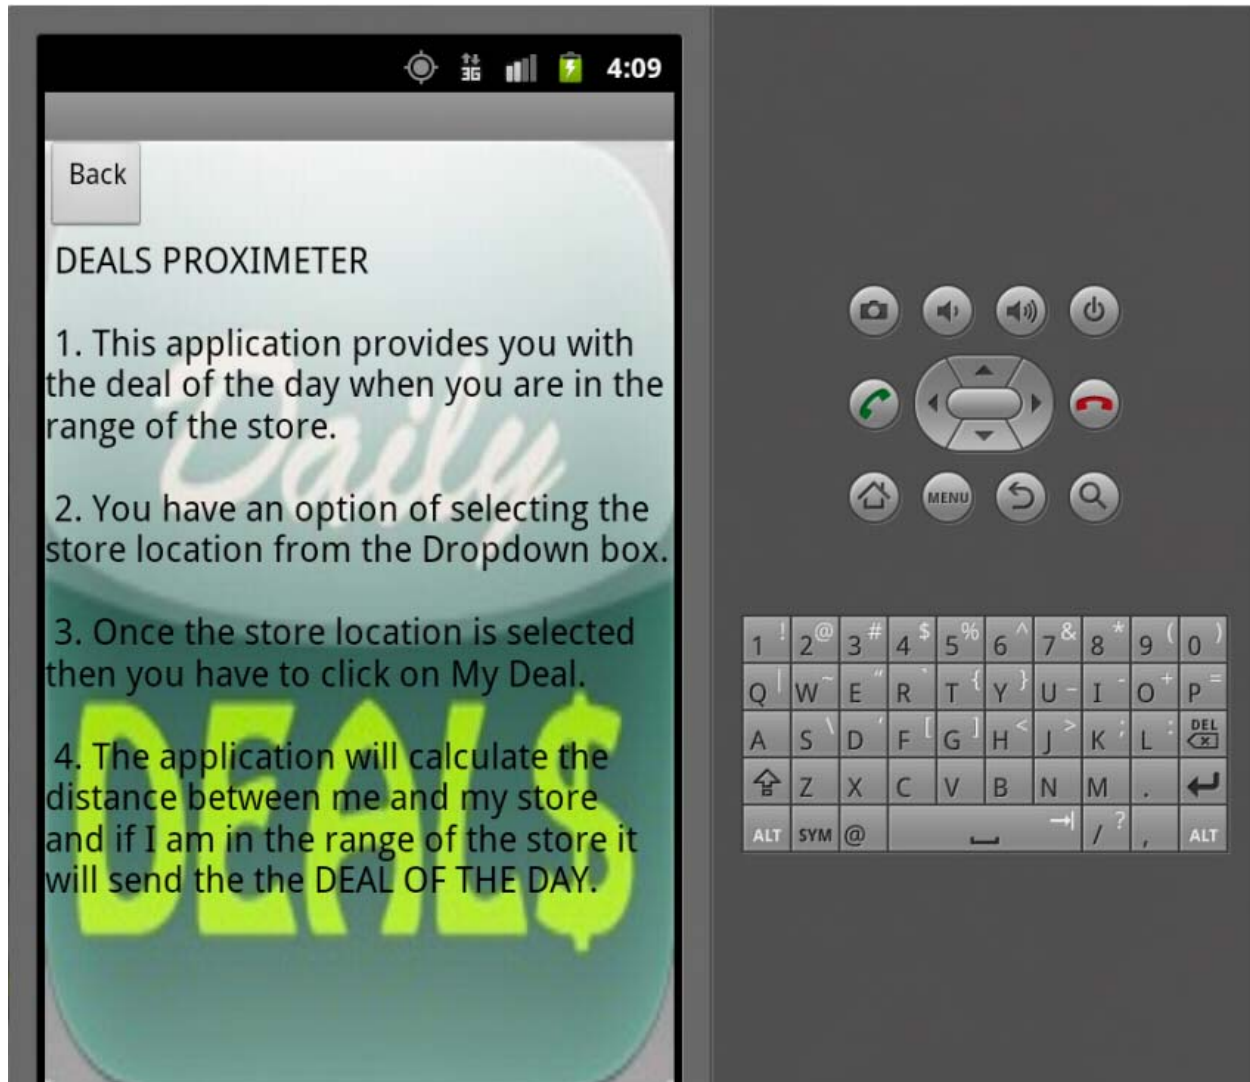

8. Here the user is out of range from the store so he will not be able to get the deal.

9. This is the help page of the application. This page give some information on how to use this application.

10. This is the about section of the application. This has some information about the Author.

